Request for Relief

Defendants are not required, under Rule 8, to respond to the relief requested in the Complaint. Nonetheless, to the extent that any of the statements or assertions under that heading may be deemed to allege any factual or legal entitlements to the relief requested, Defendants deny each and every such allegations, and specifically deny that Crystal Lagoons is entitled to the requested, or any, relief.

General Denial

Defendants deny any and all allegations in the Complaint that are not specifically admitted in Defendants' answer and responses above.

Jury Demand

Defendants demand trial by jury of all issues so triable.

ADDITIONAL, AFFIRMATIVE, AND AVOIDANCE DEFENSES

Without admitting or acknowledging what must be alleged by way of affirmative or avoidance defenses or that Defendants bear the burden of proof as to any of the defenses set forth herein; Defendants allege the following as additional, affirmative or avoidance defenses to the Complaint, the purported claim therein, and the relief sought therein.

First Defense—Failure to State a Claim

The Complaint fails to state a claim against Defendants upon which relief can be granted.

Second Defense—Waiver and Estoppel

Crystal Lagoons, by its own conduct and omissions, is estopped from asserting, and has waived any claim for, any alleged wrongful or improper conduct on the part of Defendants.

Third Defense—Unclean Hands

Crystal Lagoons' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by its own unclean hands.

Fourth Defense—Laches

Crystal Lagoons' claims fail, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of laches.

Fifth Defense—Trademark Fair Use

Crystal Lagoons' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of fair use, nominative fair use or descriptive use.

Sixth Defense—Merely Descriptive

Crystal Lagoons' purported trademark is generic or merely descriptive and therefore unregistrable, invalid, and unprotectable.

Seventh Defense—Not Distinctive

Crystal Lagoons' purported trademark is not distinctive and does not have secondary meaning.

Eighth Defense—No Confusion

Crystal Lagoons is not entitled to relief due to a lack of likelihood of mistake, confusion, or deception.

Ninth Defense—Not Famous

Crystal Lagoons' purported trademark is not famous such that Crystal Lagoons has no claim for trademark dilution.

Tenth Defense—Failure to Monitor

Crystal Lagoons is not entitled to relief to the extent it has abandoned any trademark rights that it may have had in the asserted mark by failing to adequately police, monitor, or control third parties using the asserted mark or by failing to treat the asserted mark as a trademark.

Eleventh Defense—Failure to Notify

Crystal Lagoons' claim for alleged violation of the Utah Truth in Advertising Act is barred because of Crystal Lagoons' failure to comply with the notice requirements of that Act.

Twelfth Defense—Patent Non-Infringement

Defendants have not infringed, either literally, contributorily or under the doctrine of equivalents, or contributed to infringement by others, or actively induced others to infringe the '514 Patent.

Thirteenth Defense—Prosecution History Estoppel

Crystal Lagoons' claims of patent infringement against Defendants are barred in whole or in part by the doctrines of prosecution history estoppel or prosecution disclaims, ensnarement, or claim vitiation.

Fourteenth Defense—Patent Misuse

Crystal Lagoons' claims are barred because of its own patent misuse.

Fifteenth Defense—Patent Invalidity

The claims of the '514 Patent are invalid for failure to satisfy one or more of the requirements of Sections 100, 101, 102, 103, and 112 of Title 35 of the United States Code.

Sixteenth Defense—Failure to Mark

Crystal Lagoons is precluded from recovering any damages arising from Defendants' alleged infringement before the filing and service of the Complaint due to the failure of Crystal Lagoons to give proper notice pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 287.

Seventeenth Defense—No Entitlement to Injunctive Relief

Crystal Lagoons is not entitled to injunctive relief under 35 U.S.C. § 283.

Eighteenth Defense—Inequitable Conduct

The '514 Patent is unenforceable due to inequitable conduct committed during the prosecution of the '514 Patent or their related patents before the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

Further Defenses

In addition to the defenses set forth above, Defendants reserve the right to raise, assert, rely upon, or add any new or additional defenses under Rule 8(c), the laws of the United States, the laws of Utah, or any other governing jurisdictions that may exist or in the future be applicable based on discovery and further factual investigation in this Action, and reserves the right to amend any and all defenses set forth above as discovery proceeds.

Fifth Counterclaim—Declaratory Judgment of Non-Infringement of the '514 Patent
(by Desert Color and Pacific Aquascape)

52. Defendants hereby reallege and incorporate the forgoing paragraphs of the Counterclaims as if set forth in full hereat.

53. Crystal Lagoons' Complaint alleges that Defendants infringe the '514 Patent.

54. Defendants deny any alleged patent infringement of the '514 Patent.

55. Defendants have not infringed and do not infringe, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, any valid and enforceable asserted claim of the '514 Patent.

56. Defendants have not infringed and do not infringe, either contributorily, by inducement, or in any other manner, any valid and enforceable asserted claim of the '514 Patent.

57. The Desert Color lagoon is not a water structure “larger than 15,000 m³.”

58. The Desert Color lagoon does not include a system of skimmers for the removal of impurities and surface oils [with] a fresh water feeding pip system that allows entrance of fresh water and results in water removal by displacement of surface water through the skimmer system.”

59. The Desert Color lagoon does not include the claimed “suction device” of the '514 Patent.

60. The Desert Color lagoon employs a traditional filtration system with inlets and outlets to recirculate water through a filter.

61. For at least these reasons, in addition to others, the Defendants do not infringe the '514 Patent.

62. An actual and justiciable controversy exists between Crystal Lagoons and Defendants regarding Crystal Lagoons' allegations that Defendants infringe the '514 Patent.

63. Defendants are entitled to a declaration of this Court stating that they have not infringed and do not infringe the '514 Patent in any manner whatsoever.

64. Defendants additionally seek any further relief deemed appropriate by this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2202.

Sixth Counterclaim—Declaratory Judgment of Invalidity of the '514 Patent
(by Desert Color and Pacific Aquascape)

65. Defendants hereby reallege and incorporate the forgoing paragraphs of the Counterclaims as if set forth in full hereat.

66. Each of the asserted claims of the '514 Patent is invalid for failure to comply with the requirements of patentability, including those set forth in 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, 102, 103, or 112.

67. For example, the water structure at the Madinat Jumeriah Resort, which was designed at least by November 21, 2001, constructed in 2002, and opened in 2004, is prior art to the '514 Patent that individually or in combination with other prior art invalidates the '514 Patent.

68. The water structure at the Madinat Jumeriah Resort is a water body larger than 15,000 m³, is for recreation use and has “color, transparency, and cleanness characteristics similar to swimming pools or tropical seas.” Furthermore, the water structure at the Madinat Jumeriah Resort includes a bottom and walls covered with a plastic LLDPE liner, has a depth of over 0.5 meters, includes a system of skimmers for the removal of impurities and surface oils, includes a fresh water feeding pipe system that allows the entrance of fresh water and results in water removal by displacement of surface water through the skimmer system, and has a pumping system including a coupling means connected to a movable suction device for cleaning the plastic liner.

69. The structure at the Madinat Jumeriah Resort contains each and every limitation of claim 1 of the '514 Patent and thus invalidates at least claim 1 of the '514 Patent.

70. In similar fashion, at least claim 1 of the '514 Patent is also invalid in light of the Atlantis Predator Lagoon in Nassau, Bahamas designed and constructed in 1994.

71. In similar fashion, at least claim 1 of the '514 Patent is also invalid in light of the water structure at the U.S. National Whitewater Center in Charlotte, North Carolina, designed in 2004.

72. In similar fashion, at least claim 1 of the '514 Patent is also invalid in light of the pools for the 2004 Aquatics Grand Prix of Long Beach design and constructed in 2004.

73. In similar fashion, at least claim 1 of the '514 Patent is also invalid in light of the Dolphin Cay water structure at the Atlantis Resort in Nassau, Bahamas designed in 2004.

74. The claims of the '514 Patent are also invalid in light of prior art patents, reference guides, pool codes, handbooks, and other materials within the knowledge of those of skill in the art, including U.S. Patent 4,948,296, U.S. Patent No. 5,107,872, the 2004 Florida pool code, the 2004 Texas pool code, the 1991 ANSI/NSPI-1 Standard for Public Swimming Pools, the 2000 “Swimming Pools” reference book by Philip H. Perkins, the National Swimming Pool Foundation, Pool-Spa Operators Handbook, and countless other designs for pools and water structures as well as reference materials for those constructing the same.

75. Under Crystal Lagoons’ apparent claim constructions and interpretations, the ’514 Patent is self-invalidating and presents no novelty.

76. Under Crystal Lagoons’ apparent claim constructions and interpretations, conventional swimming pools have included each of the claim elements of claim 1 of the ’514 Patent because there was no limitation on the construction of conventional swimming pools larger than 15,000 m³ given sufficient resources.

77. An actual justiciable controversy exists between Crystal Lagoons and Defendants regarding the validity of the ’514 Patent.

78. Defendants are entitled to a declaration of this Court stating that the asserted claims of the ’514 Patent are invalid.

79. Defendants additionally seek any further relief deemed appropriate by this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2202.

Jury Demand

Pursuant to Rule 38, Defendants demand trial by jury of all issues so triable, whether presented by Crystal Lagoons' claims against Defendants, Defendants' Counterclaims against Crystal Lagoons, or otherwise.

Prayer for Relief

WHEREFORE, Defendants request relief as follows:

- A. That Crystal Lagoons take nothing by the Complaint;
- B. A declaration of non-infringement and no-dilution with respect to Crystal Lagoon's asserted trademark;
- C. A declaration that Crystal Lagoons' asserted trademark is invalid and cancellation of the same;
- D. A declaration that Defendants have not engaged in false designation of origin and unfair competition as alleged by Crystal Lagoons;
- E. A declaration that Defendants have not engaged in false advertising as alleged by Crystal Lagoons;
- F. A declaration that Defendants do not infringe, induce infringement, or contributorily infringe any valid and enforceable claim of the '514 Patent;

- G. A declaration that Crystal Lagoons' asserted claims from the '514 Patent are invalid;
- H. A declaration that Crystal Lagoons' claims are meritless and exceptional;
- I. An award of Defendants costs of suit, attorney's fees, and expenses in defending against this suit; and
- J. Such other and further relief as this Court shall deem just and proper.
